History of Stephen Perse

The Perse Girls School, founded in 1881, evolved into the Stephen Perse Foundation in 2007, and first admitted boys to its Senior School in 2017. Stephen Perse has grown over recent years, adding a co-educational sixth form to its highly successful Senior School in 2008, and four nurseries and early years settings (three in Cambridge and one at Dame Bradbury's in Saffron Walden) between 2010 and 2021. Stephen Perse has been fully co-educational in all settings since 2017 and now comprises four nurseries, two junior schools, a senior school and sixth form.

Predominantly a day school, there are currently 60 (mainly sixth form) boarders. As well as its reputation for academic excellence, Stephen Perse is renowned for an innovative approach to education, and a focus on preparing students for the future.

Our Mission Statement

At Stephen Perse, our mission is to educate and inspire the contributors to tomorrow's world: intelligent young people with the creativity, compassion, confidence and conviction to question, evaluate and improve society.

Our Vision Statement

To deliver this mission, our vision is to create and sustain an outstanding educational environment that:

- Fosters modern scholarship through exceptional teaching and a dynamic, flexible and rigorous academic curriculum.
- Provides outstanding breadth of opportunity and quality of experience through a rich and varied co-curriculum.
- Nurtures and celebrates individuality, wellbeing, personal development, and contribution to the growth of others, through superb pastoral care, social and emotional education, and learning support.
- Champions and models equality, diversity and inclusivity, and social and environmental responsibility with a global outlook.

Our Values Statement

With excellence and creativity in teaching and learning at the core of each of our schools and nurseries, we value the positive difference our students can make in the world through:

- Scholarship and the advancement of knowledge and understanding.
- Kindness, courtesy, inclusivity and collaboration.
- Diligence, independence and self-reliance.
- Humility, reflectiveness and the pursuit of self-improvement.
- Character, individuality, wellbeing and confidence.
- Conserving the environment and living sustainably.

Welcome from the Principal

Richard Girvan

Stephen Perse is a leader in modern independent education, superbly well placed, both to meet the challenges, and to seize the opportunities, presented by its future.

Any school, indeed, any group of schools, is only as strong as its people. Stephen Perse boasts exceptional people across all of its schools and nurseries, and invests in their recruitment, development and empowerment to ensure our pupils benefit from excellent role models, outstanding support and exceptional teaching. As Principal, I consider this investment in our people to be of utmost importance.

At Stephen Perse, all are united in embracing the modern world and in seeking to help our pupils to find and take their place in it, as confident, socially responsible adults. We seek to attract people who are inspired by this challenge, people who share our values, people who are passionate about our collective vision of developing the change-makers of the future.

Nursery Practitioner JD & PS

Responsible to: Head of Early Years (Nursery Manager on a daily basis)

Location: Stephen Perse Cambridge Early Years, Salisbury Villas Nursery

Role Description

The Nursery Practitioner is a qualified practitioner required to be a key worker for babies and toddlers aged between 10 months and 2 years old. To be an effective member of the team caring for babies and toddlers and helping to maintain high quality, enabling indoor and outdoor environments. To work with the Toddler team to teach the Stephen Perse Toddler curriculum. To respond to new initiatives and support new strategies to continually improve practice and promote effective learning, appropriate achievement and the educational, social and personal progress of all nursery children, consistent with the aims of the Stephen Perse Foundation nurseries and the unique needs of each individual.

Main Responsibilities

Key Worker:

- Be responsible for a key group of children.
- Contribute to the creation of a safe, welcoming and inclusive indoor and outdoor enabling environment for all children to develop and learn through play.

- Understand the stages of young children's learning and development and the benefits of maximising time spent learning outdoors.
- Contribute to planning and evaluation of high quality provision and stimulating activities which meet individual needs.
- Be reflective of practice and routines, working with the Baby class and the Toddler team, tailoring them to meet developmental stages of each child throughout the day.
- To observe and assess individual children's learning and development, ensuring records are kept up-to-date, are of a high standard and are shared effectively.
- Write reports on key pupil progress and development for your key children.
- Contribute to the development of PEPs for children with special needs and disabilities.
- Organise the learning environment and develop appropriate resources as required.

- Take initiative and respond flexibly to situations arising, taking positive action in line with Stephen Perse policies and ethos.

Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of the child

- Be responsible for promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children and young people in your class and come into contact with.

- Be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to child protection, health, safety and security.
- Be able to recognise when a child or young person is in danger or at risk of harm, and take action to protect them.
- Have an awareness and basic knowledge where appropriate of the most recent legislation.
- Fulfil all of the requirements and duties set out in the current pay and conditions documents relating to the conditions of employment.

General responsibilities

- Act as an excellent ambassador for Stephen Perse at all times.
- Build and maintain good working relationships with all Stephen Perse colleagues.
- Assist as necessary in other Stephen Perse areas at peak times.
- Work at all times towards the aims and goals of Stephen Perse and any individual objectives and targets you may have agreed.
- Proactively identify areas for improvements within Stephen Perse.
- Actively promote the Stephen Perse Equal Opportunities Policy, encouraging staff awareness and participation in all areas.

- Act in accordance with the Data Protection principles at all times.
- Adhere at all times to Stephen Perse operational and employment policies and procedures.
- Take care of your own health and safety and that of people who may be affected by what you do (or do not do).
- Cooperate with others on health and safety, and not interfere with, or misuse, anything provided for your health, safety or welfare.
- Follow the training you have received when using any work items Stephen Perse has provided.
- Adhere to the Stephen Perse Privacy Notice and ensure private and confidential data is kept secure and disposed of in the appropriate manner.

This job description is not necessarily comprehensive and the position holder will be required to carry out such other duties as may reasonably be required within the general scope and level of the post.
